Verse 1

D                   G      D           A
   When the day is dawning   on a Texas Sunday morning

D              G      D              A
   how I long to be there    with Marie who's waiting for me there

Bb             F      Bb                F
   every lonely city        where I hang my hat

Bb              F        A7
   ain't as half as pretty    as where my baby's at

Chorus

D                 G        D                   A7
  Is this the way to Amarillo       every night I've been hugging my pillow

D                   G        D          A7      D
   dreaming dreams of Amarillo      and sweet Marie who waits for me

D                 G       D              A7
  show me the way to Amarillo    I've been weeping like a willow

D             G        D           A7      D
   crying over Amarillo    and sweet Marie who waits for me

Bridge

D              G        G D
   Sha la la   lala   lala la

D              A        A G
   Sha la la   lala   lala la

G              D
   Sha la la   lala   lala la

A7             D
   and Marie who waits for me
```

D                        G      D              A
   There's a church bell ringing    hear the song of joy that it's singing

D                    G    D               A
   for the sweet Maria      and the guy who's coming to see her

Bb                 F      Bb             F
   just beyond the highway,    there's an open plain

Bb                 F      A7
   and it keeps me going     through the wind and rain

Chorus

D                  G        D                    A7
  Is this the way to Amarillo     every night I've been hugging my pillow

D                   G       D        A7      D
   dreaming dreams of Amarillo    and sweet Marie who waits for me

D                   G       D              A7
  show me the way to Amarillo    I've been weeping like a willow

D              G        D             A7      D
   crying over Amarillo    and sweet Marie who waits for me
